Please join us at the 2017 Annual Meeting of the Southeastern Allergy, Asthma and Immunology Society. The Annual Meeting is a live speaker event that includes both lecture and interactive debate formats. This is a great opportunity for your representatives to speak one-on-one with our members in a more relaxed setting.

The Southeastern Society represents 13 states, and has more than 250 members. Over 80 physicians and ancillary providers attended last year's meeting at the Hilton Sandestin, Miramar Beach, Florida. Attendees will receive approximately 14 continuing education credits.

Thank you in advance for considering this request. Our physician members are most appreciative of your support for our educational endeavors. I hope to hear from you in the next few days.
